POWER OF MANY

ACTIONS TO DATE (highlights)

March 2019

- Recommended that Ontario school boards implement a hiring freeze.
- Accused of interfering with the OPP (i.e., appointing a close friend and firing a veteran officer).
- Caused the shutdown of Harmony Movement, which provides diversity, equity, and inclusion education.
- Caused the lay-off of nearly 10 staff at KidsAbility, an organization that provides various forms of therapy for children with autism.
- Announced a 10% cut to the Human Rights Legal Support Centre, which provides free legal services to people who have experienced human rights violations at work and in their communities.
- Announced changes to the education system (raising high school classroom sizes from 22 to 28 students to reduce the number of teachers and pushing back gender identity and expression teaching to Grade 8).

February 2019

- Introduced the People's Health Care Act, which dismantles government agencies such as LHINs, Cancer Care Ontario, and the Trillium Gift of Life Network and folds patient care into a "super agency."
- Introduced voucher-based approach to children's autism services (i.e., taking money away from regional agencies).
- Considering making it easier for landlords to evict tenants by slashing the waiting periods for eviction notices and allowing private bailiffs to remove renters.
- Inked a deal with the City of Toronto that outlines the framework for uploading the subway to Queen's Park.
- Considering slashing the number of regional school boards, particularly in smaller communities.
- Introduced the Comprehensive Ontario Police Services Act, drastically altering how police officers are governed and treated.
- Turned a $3,600 part-time EQAO position into a $140,000-a-year patronage job for a defeated PC candidate.

POWER OF MANY

- Forced clinics to discontinue waitlists for funded IVF due to lack of confirmed government funding.
- Forced Service Ontario to delay providing birth, marriage, and death certificates, likely due to lack of resources.
- Caused the lay-off of more than 40 staff at the office of the Provincial Advocate for Children and Youth.
- Announced a one-time $1 million budget increase for rape crisis centres for the next fiscal year (promised almost $4 million this fiscal year, and almost $4 million the next).
- Caused the lay-off of 25 full-time and 15 part-time registered nursing positions at Grand River Hospital.

January 2019

- Cut $15 million from the Ontario Trillium Foundation, which helps fund initiatives like the Coalition for Better Child Care.
- Announced removing post-secondary grants for low-income students and reversing recent OSAP changes; reduced post-secondary operating funding through unfunded tuition reductions.
- Announced the Student Choice Initiative, which will allow post-secondary students to opt out of union fees outside of "essential campus health and safety initiatives."
- Appointed their principal secretary as a full-time member of the Ontario Energy Board, who will earn $197,000.
- Compelled Hydro One to pay Avista Corp USD$103 million after a failed merger plan (cited Ford's efforts to force Hydro One CEO to retire as a sign politics).
- Failed to fill vacant adjudicator positions at the Human Rights Tribunal, undermining cases and discouraging vulnerable people from seeking relief and justice.
- Considering removing the cap on class sizes for kindergarten and grades 1 to 3.
- "Committed" to full-day kindergarten for this Fall, leaving it uncertain thereafter.
- Announced intent to re-examine how and where beer is sold throughout Ontario.
- Transitioned health and safety training from in-person to online, affecting 50,000 workplaces.

December 2018

- Legislated OPG workers back-to-work.

POWER OF MANY

- Cut $25 million from school board funding, which funds tutors in classrooms and extra services for Indigenous and racialized students.
- Revoked current and future funding for the College of Midwives of Ontario.
- Slashed $5 million in base funding to the Ontario Arts Council and more than $2 million to the Indigenous Culture Fund.
- Appointed a new Ford-friendly Pay Equity Commissioner.
- Introduced Bill 66, Restoring Ontario's Competitiveness Act (e.g., loosened home-based child care regulations; reclassified employers to avoid hiring well-trained unionized workers for public infrastructure projects; removed important health & safety regulations to maintain clean drinking water; repealed Employment Standards Act provisions to protect vulnerable workers).
- Remained unmoved on eliminating street checks, despite the recommendations of the Independent Street Checks Review.

November 2018

- Required all provincial agencies, as of 2019, to obtain approval of 1) their bargaining mandates and 2) ratification of collective agreements, potentially expanding this oversight to other areas of the broader public sector.
- Passed Bill 57, Restoring Trust, Transparency, and Accountability Act (e.g., delayed the Pay Transparency Act; removed independent officers of the House; cancelled a small increase in taxes for high-income earners; rolled back rent control for existing units).
- Passed a transphobic policy resolution at the PC convention, calling on the government to remove gender identity references from the sexual education curriculum.
- Re-announced the creation 6,000 new long-term care beds – more than 80 per cent of which were established under the previous government.
- Introduced regressive social assistance reforms (e.g., limiting access for persons with disabilities).
- Lowered the bar to hire Ford-friendly OPP Commissioner, Ron Taverner.

October 2018

- Allotted the sale of recreational cannabis to private retailers – in lieu of the LCBO.

POWER OF MANY

July 2018

- Legislated members of CUPE 3903 at York university back to work.
- Launched a line-by-line audit of the Liberals' spending across the broader public sector (i.e., the big kick off to Ford's promise to find $6 billion in "efficiencies").
- Reverted to the 1998 sex-ed curriculum until further consultation (i.e., failing to address important topics, such as same-sex relationships, social media, gender identity and expression, as well as consent).
- Halted creating mandatory curriculum for students in elementary and secondary school – on residential schools, Treaties, and Indigenous peoples' contributions to Canada (i.e., #62 of the Truth and Reconciliation call to actions).
- Withdrew cooperation to help fund the resettlement of asylum seekers.
- Forced out the Hydro One CEO and Board, paying the "$6-million-dollar man" at least $9 million upon retirement.
- Cut a planned 3 per cent increase to social assistance in half and scrapped the basic income pilot program.
- Cut the Liberals' promised $2.1 billion over four years for new mental health funding with $1.9 billion over 10 years (i.e., $190 million per year instead of $525 million).

June 2018

- Cancelled all of the programs that were funded by the $2.9 billion in revenues amassed through the cap-and-trade program – including school and social housing repairs as well as rebates for green energy retrofits.
- Exited the cap-and-trade program and cancelled 758 green energy contracts.
- Restricted access to free prescription drugs for Ontarians 24 and under, who currently do not have access to such benefits (i.e., a step backwards from universal pharma care).
- Eliminated key equity ministries, such as the Ministries Responsible for the Anti-Racism Directorate, for the Poverty Reduction Strategy, for Early Years and Child Care, for the Status of Women as well as the Ministries of Citizenship and Immigration, and of Research, Innovation, and Science.
- Instituted a hiring freeze across the broader public sector with the exception of "essential frontline workers."
- Instituted a pay freeze across the broader public sector for executives, management, and employees not covered by collective bargaining.
