

An important message to union members

Conservative leader Tim Hudak has announced plans to significantly weaken your union and every other union in Ontario.

Weaker unions would mean:

- ✗ Reduced bargaining power in negotiations with your employer
- ✗ Even more downward pressure on the wages and benefits of both union and non-union workers
- ✗ Increased threats to workers' pensions
- ✗ Reduced workplace safety and union representation
- ✗ Fewer good jobs for the next generation
- ✗ Weaker defense of public services, human rights and the environment.

Tim Hudak claims that his target is union leaders, not rank-and-file workers—but this is not true. If Hudak is elected, the biggest losers would be working people. He is concealing his intentions by using phrases like “creating a competitive labour market”—these are code words for a low-wage economy.

An important message to union members

Conservative leader Tim Hudak has announced plans to significantly weaken your union and every other union in Ontario.

Weaker unions would mean:

- ✗ Reduced bargaining power in negotiations with your employer
- ✗ Even more downward pressure on the wages and benefits of both union and non-union workers
- ✗ Increased threats to workers' pensions
- ✗ Reduced workplace safety and union representation
- ✗ Fewer good jobs for the next generation
- ✗ Weaker defense of public services, human rights and the environment.

Tim Hudak claims that his target is union leaders, not rank-and-file workers—but this is not true. If Hudak is elected, the biggest losers would be working people. He is concealing his intentions by using phrases like “creating a competitive labour market”—these are code words for a low-wage economy.

It is time to pay attention to our union rights

To weaken unions and lower the living standards of workers, the Conservatives have imported from the U.S. a scheme that would drastically change labour laws. The attack on labour laws is being promoted by think tanks that are funded by wealthy corporations.

Under U.S.-style labour laws, any worker in a unionized workplace can quit their union and stop paying dues. This would open the door to employer campaigns to seriously divide and weaken us.

We need stronger unions and better protection for working people

Hudak's big lie is that nothing bad will happen to workers if their union loses members, dues and bargaining power.

Even Conservative union members are having second thoughts about voting for extreme policies that would hit them in the pocketbook now and weaken defense of their pensions in the future.

Fairness is a Canadian value

Existing labour laws require that everybody pays their fair share for union representation. That's how it should be.

For more campaign information and materials,
check with your union and/or visit:

www.OFL.ca www.labourcouncil.ca
www.fairnessworks.ca

It is time to pay attention to our union rights

To weaken unions and lower the living standards of workers, the Conservatives have imported from the U.S. a scheme that would drastically change labour laws. The attack on labour laws is being promoted by think tanks that are funded by wealthy corporations.

Under U.S.-style labour laws, any worker in a unionized workplace can quit their union and stop paying dues. This would open the door to employer campaigns to seriously divide and weaken us.

We need stronger unions and better protection for working people

Hudak's big lie is that nothing bad will happen to workers if their union loses members, dues and bargaining power.

Even Conservative union members are having second thoughts about voting for extreme policies that would hit them in the pocketbook now and weaken defense of their pensions in the future.

Fairness is a Canadian value

Existing labour laws require that everybody pays their fair share for union representation. That's how it should be.

For more campaign information and materials,
check with your union and/or visit:

www.OFL.ca www.labourcouncil.ca
www.fairnessworks.ca

