

ONTARIO FEDERATION OF LABOUR SOLIDARITY & PRIDE CHAMPION AWARD

This annual award is to acknowledge and celebrate individuals or groups who have made a significant or ongoing contribution to the advancement of the two-spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, queer, and intersex (2SLGBTQI+) human rights, equity, and inclusion, who are leaders in advancing equality and quality of life for 2SLGBTQI+ people in workplaces, communities, and globally.

Recipient Criteria

The nominee must be an individual or group who has not previously received this award and who:

- Lives or works within the region of Ontario and identifies as a member of the 2SLGBTQI+ community or represents members of the 2SLGBTQI+ community.
- Takes a proactive role in raising awareness and championing 2SLGBTQI+ issues.
- Is committed to furthering diversity and inclusion in the workplace and promoting social justice for 2SLGBTQI+ people in the broader community.
- Is a leader in advancing equality and understanding for 2SLGBTQI+ people and advocates in the human rights and labour movements to advance the rights and freedoms of the 2SLGBTQI+ community.
- Is passionate about breaking down barriers for 2SLGBTQI+ people everywhere.
- Has promoted 2SLGBTQI+ rights and equality within the labour movement, community, and/or legislative reform.

Actions/activities that could be considered criteria for the Award are achievements, efforts, mobilization, organizing campaigns, notable leadership, and years of service.

Nomination Process

Please send the name and affiliation of the individual or group nominated to OFL Human Rights Director Ogbo Ikhlo via email oikhlo@ofl.ca. Please describe the nominee's achievements, efforts or leadership and how their 2SLGBTQI+ activism has positively impacted the labour movement and/or their community allies.
