

The Ontario NDP Women's Committee

BREAKING BOUNDARIES

Award for Social Justice Leadership

Activists in the New Democratic Party follow in the footsteps of many distinguished political trailblazers. In 1990, the Ontario NDP Women's Committee established an annual award to honour the significant contributions that women and gender diverse people in the party have made towards the advancement of gender equity and social justice.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION

The recipient will have worked for the advancement of women's issues and social justice causes within and/or outside of the Party. They may be active within the Ontario NDP, or their community, in a way that reflects a commitment to Party policy and principles.

The recipient of this award should be someone whose work has displayed dedication to equity and inclusion, within the Party, and the province of Ontario. Examples of this can include: furthering gender justice, ending racism, working towards decolonization, eradicating white supremacy, advancing LGBTQ+ rights and challenging ableism.

The Women's Committee is especially eager to acknowledge Ontario NDP members whose contributions have not been publicly recognized by the Party to date.

ELIGIBILITY

This award is open to all individuals who identify as women, or gender diverse and are or have been members in good standing of the Ontario NDP or CCF. Nominations may be made by individual New Democrats, riding associations, or affiliated bodies. Nominees must agree to their nomination and may be re-nominated in a subsequent year. Nominees must have been active in the province of Ontario.

The nominating body should provide a statement, not more than two pages in length, stating why this nominee is a worthy recipient of this Award. Supporting documentation including letters from individuals, or organizations, along with other information about the nominee are also encouraged. Please fill in and enclose the nomination form with your nomination.

Please note: If you nominated someone last year that you would like to nominate again this year, only fill out the nomination form. The Women's Committee has kept the supporting letters on file.
