

Letter of Endorsement

This is to formally endorse the Canadian Union of Postal Workers campaign “Delivering Community Power”. Our organization supports the vision of this campaign and will do everything within its power and jurisdiction to apply pressure on elected officials at every level of government to ensure the campaigns success.

Our organization will share with our members the vision of a post-COVID just recovery that utilizes the post office’s resources to increase services offered at the post office presented in the “Delivering Community Power” campaign.

I/we authorize you to publicly share our endorsement and use it in your materials, communications and online. I/we also consent to receive further communications, in electronic or other formats, from CUPW and its related campaigns.
