

APPLICATION FORM FOR THE

OFL/AIL JACK LAYTON LABOUR POST-SECONDARY SCHOLARSHIP

2018

Dear OFL Members,

The OFL is proud to be joined in partnership by American Income Life (AIL) Canada in calling for applications for the annual OFL/AIL Labour Post-Secondary Scholarships.

Two OFL members, or the children of members, will be selected from a pool of applicants to each receive a scholarship in the amount of $2,500 to support them as they enter their first year of full-time post-secondary study in September 2018. The scholarships will be awarded in honour of distinguished trade union activists who have made a significant contribution to the life and growth of the labour movement in Ontario.

Eligible candidates must:

- Be a current member, or the child of a member, of a local union affiliated to the OFL;
- Be enrolled for September 2018 to enter their first year of full-time study (leading to a diploma or certificate) at a public Ontario community college or the first year of an undergraduate program (leading to a degree) at a publicly funded Ontario university;
- Not have any prior post-secondary studies; and
- Be currently enrolled or not more than two years out of secondary school.

The criteria for selection of the scholarship winners will be based on:

- An original essay, poster, or video submission on the topic outlined in this year's application package.
- A brief résumé outlining non-academic interests and activities, such as community or political involvement as well as goals for the future.
- Evidence of understanding the role and significance of the Canadian labour movement.

The deadline for receipt of applications is August 1, 2018. An Application Form is attached below. This year's scholarship winners will be announced in late August/early September 2018.

The OFL is committed to social justice and equity and believes strongly that post-secondary education provides important opportunities that should not be limited by tuition fees or student debt. We hope this scholarship helps make education more affordable while we fight to make access universal. We proudly encourage women, people of colour, Indigenous peoples, LGBTQI* people, people with disabilities, and those from other equity-seeking backgrounds to apply for this scholarship.

The OFL represents more than one million unionized workers in Ontario from 50 affiliated unions and is proud to have the support of AIL Canada, a 100% union company that is a leader in providing supplemental insurance benefits. For more information on AIL Canada, visit: www.AILife.com.

Please circulate this call for applications to help ensure that these scholarships are made known as widely as possible.

In solidarity,

Chris Buckley

PART FOUR: ORIGINAL ESSAY, VIDEO OR POSTER SUBMISSION

All applicants must submit an original work satisfying ONE of the following criteria:

- 1. ESSAY: 1000-word, typed essay on the following topic:
In 2017 and 2018, we saw dramatic changes to our labour laws in Ontario through Bill 148, with more scheduled next year. In the 2018 Ontario provincial election, what tools and strategies must the labour movement employ to ensure our newly elected provincial government remains committed to the victories won by our labour community? As a young worker, what will you do to keep up the momentum and to hold the new government accountable to the commitments made in Bill 148?
- 2. VIDEO: Create an imaginative, clever and original one-minute video designed to encourage students and/or young workers to get involved in fighting for decent work and maintain our new rights under Bill 148 no matter what government is elected after June 7, as outlined in the essay question above. Video submissions must be uploaded as an “unlisted” video on Youtube and with a link provided.
- 3. POSTER: 8.5”x11” (letter-sized) poster of original artwork encouraging students and young workers to get involved in fighting for decent work and maintain our new rights under Bill 148 no matter what government is elected after June 7, as outlined in the essay question above. Poster submissions must be accompanied by a short 200-300 word reflection on how the poster connects to the essay theme.

PART FIVE: DECLARATION, DEADLINE & DESTINATION

I hereby confirm that all information submitted herewith is true and complete. I declare that my essay, poster or video submission is my own original work and reflective of my independent thoughts. I acknowledge that the OFL retains the right to publish the names of winners, photos, and submissions (wholly or in part).
